

Learning Measurement

Worksheet 1: Which is the Tallest?

Parents, help your child to identify which picture is the tallest in each box and circle it.

Three giraffes are shown. The one on the left is the tallest, the one in the middle is the shortest, and the one on the right is of medium height.	Three trees are shown. The one on the left is of medium height, the one in the middle is the shortest, and the one on the right is the tallest.
Three cartoon boys are shown. The one on the left is the shortest, the one in the middle is of medium height, and the one on the right is the tallest.	Three yellow buildings with black windows are shown. The one on the left is of medium height, the one in the middle is the tallest, and the one on the right is the shortest.
Three wooden ladders are shown. The one on the left is the shortest, the one in the middle is the tallest, and the one on the right is of medium height.	Three red flags on black poles are shown. The one on the left is the tallest, the one in the middle is of medium height, and the one on the right is the shortest.